

MFL : German

Overview

Travel - so the saying goes – broadens the mind, and never more so than when you can speak the language. That way you’ll be able to find out what the local people are thinking, how they live ... and how their culture really works. This course has been designed to give you a profound understanding of your chosen language. Not only will you know more about the mechanics of the language – like grammar and vocabulary – but also about how people live and use language on a daily basis.

The A level course will cover:

3.1 Social issues and trends

Students must study the themes and sub-themes below in relation to at least one German speaking country. Students must study the themes and sub-themes using a range of sources, including material from online media.

3.1.1 Aspects of German-speaking society

- The changing state of the family (Familie im Wandel)
- The digital world (Die digitale Welt)
- Youth culture: fashion and trends, music, television (Jugendkultur: Mode, Musik und Fernsehen)

3.1.2 Multiculturalism in German-speaking society

Progression and Career Opportunities

Students find that MFL is a natural fit for many subjects, enabling them to use their skills and qualifications to access career opportunities at home and abroad.

There will be a range of opportunities open to you where you can continue to use and further develop your language skills and knowledge of contemporary society. Some students choose to do degree courses in languages; others choose to pursue a Higher Education course in another subject, but choose a language option alongside it.

Having a language at A Level will improve your employability, in particular with companies which have international branches. Whether you are interested in continuing your studies or working at home or abroad, a language course at A Level is an excellent step to achieving your goals.
